

FACULTY BOOK CLUB

Join fellow faculty members in Hanover's faculty book club! Books are free to faculty members, and the number and dates of book discussion meetings are determined after signups. Interested? Sign up here!

Do you ever feel like there just aren't enough hours in the day? Busy schedule diminishing your creativity and passion? In A Minute to Think, Juliet Funt provides tips, guidelines, and relatable anecdotes about rediscovering meaningful work.

Learn more about this book here

Book Group Leader: Val Young

Winter/Spring 2025

Feeling jaded about the integration of AI into classrooms? Critical thinking skills are more vital now than ever, and a liberal arts education purveys those skills. Teaching with AI gives a comprehensive guidebook on understanding and harnessing AI in a learning environment.

Learn more about this book here

Book Group Leader: Carey Adams

Fall 2024

Teaching with AI

A PRACTICAL GUIDE TO A
NEW ERA OF HUMAN LEARNING

José Antonio Bowen and
C. Edward Watson

Process Oriented Guided Inquiry Learning (POGIL) is a method of education that facilitates students' mastery of a discipline and growth as an effective communicator and critical thinker. From this book, readers will learn the benefits and core practices of this multidisciplinary pedagogy.

Learn more about this book here

Book Group Leader: Jeff Phillips

Throughout 24-25 AY

